Software Developer

I am an Afro-Latino software developer with a passion for making slick mobile and web applications and developing videogames on platforms like PlayStation 4, PC, and mobile. I want to gain more experience by building impactful applications that can make tedious tasks efficient and stylish.

EXPERIENCE

Parker Staffing at Nintendo — Finance Agent, November 2020 - Present

Nintendo of America is a subsidiary of Nintendo Co. Ltd. that provides video game products and services.

- Processed refunds, unauthorized charges, and error code related incidents.

Camouflaj Games — Paid Intern, Summer 2019

Camouflaj is a videogame studio based in Bellevue that utilizes VR technology to create groundbreaking AAA titles.

- Increased bug reports by 150% in development of "Iron Man VR", a PlayStation 4 Virtual Reality videogame title
- Assisted Ys Net, the developer of the PlayStation 4 and PC title "Shenmue III", in finding bugs and rewriting poorly translated dialogue before release
- Streamlined Camouflaj's QA bug reporting workflow through a Python script

PROJECTS

Strange Frontier Character App — Summer 2020

- The Strange Frontier Character Manager is an app that allows the user to create a customizable character sheet for the "Strange Frontier" tabletop game
- Utilized the React Native framework and Google's Firebase platform

Capstone in Computer Science — Spring 2020

- Pitched, directed, and developed an impressive videogame utilizing the Unity game engine for my senior capstone project
- Wrote over 50 interconnected scripts in C#, created a responsive UI and an intuitive UX

Theatre Bot — Fall 2018

- Theatre Bot automatically schedules actor auditions and callbacks for theatrical productions
- Utilized the MEAN stack (Node, Express, Angular, and MongoDB) to create a crisp front end
